

Ronald J. Greenwood

President

Ron is a combat decorated, combat disabled veteran for service on the front lines in Vietnam. Upon returning from his tour of duty, Ron graduated from the University of California at Berkeley with Honors. He received his law degree from Golden Gate University School of Law.

Ron grew a very successful law practice with offices in San Francisco, Silicon Valley and Walnut Creek, California. He practiced law for twenty years.

His ongoing contribution to the disabled veteran community includes many years as legal counsel to the California DVBE Alliance and past service as a board member.

Ron worked closely with John Lopez, Chairman of the Association of Service Disabled Veterans, pro bono and at his expense in pursuit of the national SDVOB legislation for disabled veterans. After the Federal legislation became law Ron and Lisa, his wife and business partner, opened Global to be a model SDVOB company that drives costs out of the supply chain and increases customer service. Global was the first company to be given the John K. Lopez Excellence in Entrepreneurship Award by the California Department of Veterans Affairs.

Ron is an Executive Board member of VCEDA and the "founding member" of TRIAD for VCEDA that promotes the integration and interaction of the local business community, education community and the Naval Base Ventura County. Global continues to be a strong supporter of ASDV. Ron is the founding Board member and Chairman of the Gold Coast Veterans Foundation, a 501©3 charitable organization.
