

Staying in Touch Around the Globe

AT&T's wireless customers benefit from competitive international discount voice, messaging and data packages to help them stay connected with friends and family wherever they are.

Making International Calls and Sending Messages from the U.S.

AT&T World Connect®. It's easy and convenient to make international calls from your mobile phone. AT&T World Connect offers discounted per-minute rates on long distance calls from the U.S. to more than 220 countries for just $3.99 a month.

International Long Distance Messaging 100. From the U.S., send 100 text, picture or video messages to an international wireless number for just $10 a month. Text messages can be sent to over 190 countries; picture and video messages can be sent to over 120 countries. This package offers savings of up to 80% over pay-per-use messaging rates.

AT&T Call International. This free mobile VoIP app offers competitive, low rates for international long distance calling, both from the U.S. and when abroad. A complete listing of countries, rates and compatible devices is available at www.att.com/callinternational.

Calling and Traveling in North America

AT&T Mexico. For $4.99 a month, customers receive discounted rates when they travel to or call Mexico.

AT&T Canada. For $4.99 a month, customers receive discounted rates when they travel to or call Canada.

Using Your Mobile Device Abroad

AT&T World Traveler<sup>SM</sup>. Take wireless service from AT&T with you as you travel to more than 220 countries—and enjoy the peace of mind that comes from knowing you can be reached on the same number you use in the U.S. For $5.99 a month, customers receive discounted calling rates when traveling in more than 150 countries.

AT&T Canada and Mexico Travel Minutes. This new international roaming voice package offers significant cost savings when making or receiving calls while visiting Canada and Mexico. As a cost-effective alternative to pay-per-use, options include:

- 50 minutes of talk time for $24.99/month ($.79 per minute overage rate)
- 125 minutes of talk time for $49.99/month ($.59 per minute overage rate)
- 275 minutes of talk time for $99.99/month ($.49 per minute overage rate)
- 800 minutes of talk time for $199.99/month ($.39 per minute overage rate)

Global Messaging Packages. Ideal for budget-conscious globetrotters, AT&T offers three Global Messaging Packages that let customers send mobile messages — text, picture and video — from more than 130 select countries for a flat rate. For a list of countries, visit att.com/globalcountries.

- Global Messaging 50 – send 50 msgs for $10/month (equates to $.20 per msg sent). Overage rate is $.40/message.
- Global Messaging 200 – send 200 msgs for $30/month (equates to $.15 per msg sent). Overage rate is $.35/message.
- Global Messaging 500 – send 500 msgs for $50/month (equates to $.10 per msg sent). Overage rate is $.25/message.

All three packages offer significant savings when compared to international roaming pay-per-use rates for messaging, which are $.50 per message sent for text messages and $1.30 per message sent for picture and video messages. Pay-per-use rates apply to messages sent when traveling outside the 130 countries in which the Global Messaging Package rates apply.

NEW! AT&T Data Global Add-On Packages (all devices including smartphones, tablets and laptops). Travelers who need to can take advantage of discounted international data rates while in over 130 countries. For a list of countries, visit att.com/globalcountries.

- 120MB plan for $30 a month
- 300MB plan for $60 a month
- 800MB plan for $120 a month

These packages are in addition to the user's existing domestic data plan. Visit www.att.com/worldpackages for more information.

International Session-Based Pricing. With AT&T DataConnect Pass Global, AT&T's lineup of international pay-as-you-go data packages available for laptops, tablets and netbooks, customers can easily manage their data usage abroad at rates significantly lower than pay-per-use service. These packages are valid in over 130 countries, for 30 days or until the data allotment has been exhausted. For a list of countries, visit att.com/globalcountries. Packages include:

- DataConnect Pass Global 120MB for $30
- DataConnect Pass Global 300MB for $60
- DataConnect Pass Global 800MB for $120
