2012 Goal

Invest $250 million planned over five years to drive innovation in education, support effective local programs and create collective impact through collaboration with AT&T business units, national partners, employers and customers to ensure that more students who are at risk of dropping out graduate from high school prepared for college and career.

2012 Progress Toward Goal

We invested $43,665,918 to date. Of that:

- 71 percent went toward programs focused on local impact;
- 15 percent went toward programs focused on social innovation;
- 6 percent went toward programs focused on connecting people (including our employee volunteerism efforts); and
• 8 percent went toward other efforts such as research and evaluation.

Among our many recipients were 47 schools, school districts and nonprofit organizations across the country that competed for dollars through a competitive RFP process. AT&T also engaged consumers around the topic, leading to a $90,000 contribution to Aspire programs through a causes.com campaign.
