

AT&T Athlete Connections Center

Fact Sheet

Rest and recovery are vital components of every U.S. Olympic hopeful's training program, helping them to combat fatigue and restore their physical, physiological, mental and emotional well-being.

The AT&T Athlete Connections Centers at the Chula Vista, Lake Placid, and Colorado Springs U.S. Olympic Training Centers assist in that rest and recovery process by providing the athletes with a place to relax and connect to the world through high speed Internet access, online gaming, DISH TV, wireless phone service and more.

These centers will provide a place for athletes where they can enjoy state-of-the-art AT&T entertainment and communications services in a fun and relaxing environment.

AT&T Services at AT&T Athlete Connections Center

AT&T Athlete Connections Centers at each of the three OTCs will be equipped with the following services:

- AT&T Voice Services. With unlimited AT&T local and long distance calling, athletes are ensured reliability, integrity and quality.
- AT&T Yahoo!® High Speed Internet Service. This award-winning, industry-leading high speed Internet service enables convenient, fast and reliable access to e-mail, online games and AT&T's blue room portal.
- AT&T | DISH Network Digital Satellite Television. This satellite TV service provides a great balance of news, sports, movies, children's and family programming, and high-definition channels and special events.
- Wireless Services from AT&T. Wireless services from AT&T provide access to the nation's largest and most reliable wireless network, including wireless broadband and international coverage.
- AT&T Wireless Charging Stations. These stations make it easy for athletes to stay charged up and connected when they're on the go.
